CARNEGIE COMPANY INSISTS THAT PRICES BE MAINTAINED.

or Pig. It Is Stated, Will Be Left to the Open Market-Meanwhile the Companies Keep Up Conferences on Wages With Men of the Amalgamated Association Further conferences of the leading iron and steel interests were held yesterday at the office of President E. H. Gary of the Federal Steel Company, 71 Broadway. Among those who talked with Mr. Gary were representatives o the prominent makers of pig iron. C. M. Schwab, President, and A. M. Moreland, Secretary of the Carnegie company, conferred with him regarding the establishment of fair prices for iron and steel products and the ending of demoralization in the trade. Mr. Gary declined to make any statement, but it was learned from another source that the Carnegie company has been a very important factor in the conferences, which are understood to have resulted in the reaching of a new agreement that will govern the trade. There was a verbal agreement previously, and it was the violation of this agreement that brought on the demoralization which is now believed to have ended. The Carnegie representatives at the conferences stated that the cutting of prices by the smaller companies, in violation of what has been agreed to, must stop. The Carnegie company for one would see to it that if any company did cut the result would be most disastrous to that company The Carnegie company with its $100,000,000 reserve would be able to put prices down so far that the small companies, which have no such sigantic reserve and which are often in debt. rould most probably perish in the contest.

It was said in Wall Street yesterday regarding the reported intention of the conferring companies to agree in fixing bottom prices for Bessemer pig iron and billets, that if the companies were to agree on such fixed prices it would not were to agree on such fixed prices it would not induce buying, for consumers would not believe that the prices were bottom, because they were fixed by agreement and not in the open market. Regarding this matter, the following despatch from Pittsburg reached Wall Street:

"It is understood that at the meeting of Bessemer iron and steel men in New York it was determined not to fix any prices, but to let the market be open and take its own course."

A conference will be held next week in Pittsburg between the Western managers of the American Steel Hoop Company and the Amalgamated Association of Steel. Iron and Tin Workers. Some agreements have already been entered into between the company and the association and it is confidently expected that the wage scale will be settled next week. One of the officers of the hoop company said yesterday that it was not true that all the mills of the company were closed at the present time. Several of the important plants in the Pittsburg district are in operation. Arrangements have also been made for the representatives of the Amalgamated Association to meet the officers of the Republic Iron and Steel Company and the American Sheet Steel Company in the next few days. No date has yet been set for the conference of the officers of the American Sheet Steel Company in the next few days. No date has yet been set for the conference of the officers of the American Tin Plate Company with the representatives of the association.

THE ARBUCKLE-HAVEMEYER PIGHT. Testimony as to the Ownership of the Woolson Spice Company.

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 6. To-day's testimony in the Arbuckle-Havemeyer war over the business of the Woolson Spice Company of this city was interesting. Judge Doyle, one of the lawyers for the Havemeyers, voiced an absolute denial to the Arbuckle company's request to examine the books, and defled it to obtain information until the court of last resort should so decide. He is a shareholder in the Woolson company and as such was on the stand under examination. He said that the Arbuckles had not become stockholders in good faith, but for the purpose of prying into the business of the Woolson company and that the object would not be accomplished. Unless the court of last resort complished. Unless the court of last resort should so determine, the Arbuckles would not get an opportunity to procure a list of the customers of the Woolson Spice Company or any other details of the business.

Secretary Brigham of the Woolson Spice Company testified that there were 1,800 shares, of which 1,325 were owned by Havemeyer & Elder, 105 by Herman Sielcken and 100 by H. O. Havemeyer. An attempt was made to connect the business of the Woolson company with the American Coffee Company and with the American Sugar Refining Company.

Herman Sielcken, a New York broker, testified that he received $25,000 a year from the Herman Sielcken, a New York broker, testified that he received $25,000 a year from the Woolson Spice Company for purchasing raw material for it, but that he did not in any way direct the business. He acknowledged that in 1896 the price of coffee was cut greatly to crowd

MORTGAGE FOR $160,000,000.

Executed by the Carnegie Company as Arranged For at Its Organization.

ORANGE, N. J., July 6 .- Charles M. Schwab, President, and Andrew Morland Secretary of the Carnegie company, came to East Orange to-day to execute a mortgage for $160,000,000 given by the company to secure the issue of given by the company to secure the issue of bonds arranged for at the time of the company's organization. The mortgaze was acknowledged by Mr. Schwab and Mr. Morland in the office of James B. Dill, counsel for the Carnegie company in the People's Bank Building. Jerome Dudley Gedney took the authorization. A representative of the United States Trust Company, trustee of the mortgage, was also present. Mr. Schwab remarked as he signed the mortgage that to-day was the anniversary of the breaking out of the Homestead riots.

He has visited the offices of the Standard Oil Company, 26 Broadway, twice in the past few days, coming and going unaccompanied. His first visit was made a week ago yesterday, and he came again on Tuesday. With his son, W. G. Rockefeller, he expects to go next week to his place near Bran-don, in the Adirondacks.

Chicago East Trains May Be Discontinued. Some of the Chicago east-bound lines are seriously considering the abandonment of their fast trains owing to the enforcement of the excess fare rule. Nearly all of the fast trains from Chicago to New York which paid well at the ordinary rate of fare are said to be losing the ordinary rate of fare are said to be losing money under the excess fare rule. Passengers object to paying the extra $2 and $3 and take the standard 28-hour trains, leaving the 28 and 28-hour trains with scarcely enough patronage to pay expenses. Unless some modification of the excess fare rule can be secured the costly equipment of the easi-bound flyers, it is feared, will have to be charged to profit and loss.

The com pany is a consolidation of all the gas, electric and traction companies of St. Lawrence county, and it is understood that P. A. B. Widener and W. L. Elkins of Philadelphia are interested in the deal.

Cut-Rate Contracts to Be Abrogated. Traffic managers of Western railroads have assured the traffic managers of the trunk lines that the east-bound rate situation will be restored to its normal condition providing the stored to its normal condition providing the Eastern railroad men keep the west-bound reight rates firm. According to the order of the Western Presidents rate cutting was to have stopped on July 1, but the Western men now say that they must have ten days or two weeks leeway in which to dispose of certain contracts outstanding. Assurances have been given that these contracts will be settled or abrogated by the middle of the month.

Mr. Hantington President of Two Texas Roads. Collis P. Huntington, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad, has been elected President of the Galveston, Houston and Northern Railway, and also of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio road. W. G. Van Vleck, a large stock-holder in these properties, has accepted the First Vice-Presidency in each road.

Large Sales of Union Pacific Lands.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has sold during the fiscal year just closed nearly 1,500,000 acres of land in the States of Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Utah and Wyoming. This is by far the largest aggregate of land sales ever made by the Union Pacific in one year. TWO MORE STAYS FOR THE ICE TRUST.

The Attorney-General May Proceed Directly Against the Trust in the Supreme Court. ALBANY, July 6.—The officials of the Ameri can Ice Company made another legal move to day to further tie up Attorney-General Davies in his prosecution against the so-called Ice Early in the day the Attorney-General was served with two additional write issued by Justice Kellogg of Plattsburg. These stays relate to Justice Chester's decision refusing to make permanent the temporary write of prohibition granted by Justice D Cady Herrick, and which refer solely to the examination of President Charles W. Morse and the other officers of the American Ice Company before Referee Nussbaum. Attorney David Wilcox furnishes the affidavits upon which these stays were issued. In the affidavit relating to President Morse counsel for the company sets forth the fact that if the examination of Morse shall be permitted to continue, his legal rights as well as those of the other officers of the company will be violated without any adequate remedy for such an abuse of power unless the stay be granted. The other affidavit in behalf of the corporation recites practically the same allegations as set forth in the preceding affidavit upon which the stay was granted putting a stop to the proceedings instituted by Justice

As has been stated, the effect of the write granted by Justice Kellogg stays all further proceedings before Referee Nussbaum until after the appeal of the American Ice Company from Justice Chester's decision has been argued before the Appellate Division. If the Attorney-General decides to abandon the present proceedings, he will, as has been announced, proceed immediately against the company in the Supreme Court in an endeavor to annul the certificate granted by the Secretary of State, authorizing it as a foreign corporation to do business in this State. It may be, however, that the Attorney-General will conclude that not enough evidence has yet been secured against the company to warrant such an action, and in the event of the Attorney-General reaching this conclusion he will endeavor to have the stays granted by Justice Kellogg vacated, so that the taking of further evidence by the referce, to be later used in the action to annul the company's certificate, may be continued. It would probably be decided that a motion to vacate the writs should be argued before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, rather than before Justice Kellogg, who granted them. The court is not in session, but an extraordinary term of the court could be called by the Governor at any time. Gov. Roosevelt is expected to be in Albany on Monday next and a conference between him and the Attorney-General will be held at that time to determine on the best course to pursue. after the appeal of the American Ice Company

FRIDAY, July 6. The early stock market reflected the hopeful feeling that has prevailed in Wall Stree all the week, based upon the action of the Kansas City Convention regarding its platform and candidates. Further advances were recorded for nearly all of the active stocks, in spite of a renewal of fairly heavy selling foreign arbitrage houses. The growing seri-ousness of the Chinese situation and its resultant effect upon the European security markets induced foreign selling of American securities in this market, to the extent of over 30,000 shares. As was the case yesterday, these sales seemed to be well taken at first, but about midday professional traders came to the conclusion that the principal demand for stocks at the advance was to cover short contracts. At the same time, the impress gained ground that operators who had bought stocks in expectation of a rally incidental to the developments at Kansas City were willing, in fact desirous, of taking profits.

As these views gained ground the profes sional element began to throw over its stocks, and, as prices yielded under these operations, fresh selling for short account became a feature of the market. The noteworthy advances early in the day were in Sugar Refining, Baltimore and Ohio, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Rock Island, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Illinois Central, Manhattan Railway, People's Gas and Metropolitan Street Railway. These stocks advanced a point or more. The movement in Baltimore and Ohio was accompanied by reports that a dividend at the rate of at least 4 per cent, per annum will be declared upon the common stock, when the usual dividend upon the preferred is declared. The improvement in Sugar Refining, as previously noted in this column, is due entirely to trade conditions and the appearances of concerted action by the various refining interests. The local traction stocks, excepting Brooklyn Rapid Transit, were favorably affected by the judicial decis ion directing the State Board of Tax Commissioners to review its assessment, under the Taxes Franchise law, on the Metropolitan Street Railway and its subsidiary lines in this city. Metropolitan Street Railway closed 3 points higher on this decision. The early improvement in Brooklyn Rapid Transit was offset by rumors that the report of the comspany of its operations for the year ending June as the narrow and largely professional market has been almost entirely sustained by the change in local speculative sentiment, in making which the incidents at Kansas City have been a very important influence, it is not surprising that a reaction should occur when the work of the Democratic Convention is concluded. During the last hour the report be came current that ex-Senator Hill had been nominated for the Vice-Presidency and, because of his diplomatic efforts to modify the cause of his diplomatic efforts to modify the monetary plank adopted by his party, the Street jumped to the conclusion that his selection for second place on the ticket would strengthen it. As a matter of fact, the reaction that took place was due entirely to local, speculative conditions. The final movement in prices was most pronounced in Louisville and Nashville, Jersey Central, Missouri Pacific, Pennsylvania, Reading issues and all of the iron and steel stocks.
